

THEY HAVE CHOSEN A LEADER

W. F. Harry Will Direct the Democratic Campaign.

MEETING OF THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE

Cal Brice Enlarged and Commended for His Work—Michigan Republicans Put a Strong Ticket in the Field—Political Pointers.

New York, July 21.—The national democratic committee met today and organized by the unanimous selection of W. F. Harry of Pennsylvania as chairman, and Simon P. Sheerin of Indiana as secretary. The committee was called to order by Hon. Calvin S. Brice, and the roll call showed all the members present except those from Montana and Arizona. They were, however, represented by proxies, which were held by A. P. Gorman.

Brice Makes a Talk

Immediately after the roll call Hon. Calvin S. Brice, chairman of the former committee, reiterated his former declaration that he did not desire to be considered a candidate for reelection. In the campaign of four years ago, he said, "I worked as earnestly as any man possibly could for democratic success. The party was defeated, however, and I am aware of the fact that the public always judges a matter of this kind by the standard of success. I am confident, however, that the members of that committee know that nothing was left undone by myself or the committee to achieve success. (Applause.) I regret to sever my pleasant connection with the committee as its chairman, but I must decline to be considered in that connection. I thank the members for the past honor conferred upon me and assure the committee that I shall remain as usual always at the command of the committee and everything I can do for the party I will always be glad to do." (Applause.)

Mr. Gorman and Mr. Sheerin of North Carolina, Mr. Thomas of Colorado and Mr. Whitney of New York all made brief speeches in commendation of Mr. Brice's past services to the party. At this juncture Mr. Brice retired from the chair and Mr. Sewell of Maine assumed the gavel.

A resolution of commendation to the committee Mr. Brice for his earnest and able services of the past was adopted by a rising vote.

Mr. Brice resumed the chair and declared that the election of a chairman of the national committee to be the next thing in order.

Harry Elected Chairman.

Mr. Whitney at once moved that Mr. W. F. Harry of Pennsylvania be selected chairman. There being no other nominations Mr. Harry was selected by acclamation.

On assuming the chair Mr. Harry spoke briefly, expressing his appreciation of the honor placed upon him and his determination to do his best in achieving success for the party, its principles and its candidates.

Simon P. Sheerin of Indiana was re-elected secretary by acclamation.

Lieutenant Governor Sheehan of New York nominated Robert H. Roosevelt for treasurer, who was also elected by acclamation.

Mr. Roosevelt is a native and resident of New York city, he is a member of Tammany hall, and was assistant secretary of Cleveland minister to the New Netherlands. He is a man of wealth. He is favorably mentioned as a possible candidate for the majority.

Mr. Whitney introduced the following resolutions in regard to the plan of campaign and they were adopted by acclamation.

Prominent Citizens Interviewed by Our Reporters Concerning the Most Available Candidate to Lead the Party in the Coming Campaign.

RICH NOMINATED

He Will Lead the Republican Forces in Michigan—Other Nominations.

SAGINAW, Mich., July 21.—The republican state convention reassembled this morning and the temporary officers were made permanent. A resolution of sympathy with Mr. Blaine in the death of his son was adopted by a rising vote.

The platform adopted endorsed the Minneapolis nominations; announced the democratic party of the state for enacting the Miner law; for choosing presidential electors by districts and the remainder of legislative districts; praise the republican policy of protection and reciprocity.

The names of John T. Rich and Mayor Piore of Detroit were mentioned as candidates for governor. An informal ballot gave Rich a majority and the nomination was made unanimous without a formal ballot. A resolution of sympathy with Mr. Blaine in the death of his son was adopted by a rising vote.

At the opening of the afternoon session the chairman introduced Mr. Rich, the candidate for governor, who spoke at some length.

Both Mr. Rich and Mayor Piore were heard for Piore. The Detroit mayor arose and declared that he would support the nomination of Mr. Rich.

Congressman James O'Donnell responded to calls made for a speech and spoke at great length.

Washington Gardner of Calhoun spoke briefly, prophesying a republican victory next November.

The convention next proceeded to the completion of the election of Hon. J. W. Giddings of Wexford county was chosen on the first ballot for lieutenant governor. John V. White of Washington, and will wind up the session of the convention.

THIRD PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.

Third Party Leaders Map Out Their Course of Travel.

St. Louis, Mo., July 21.—General J. B. Weaver and Chairman Taubeneck arrived in St. Louis this morning from Vincennes, Ind., and went direct to the national party headquarters.

General Weaver, speaking of the campaign, said he was confident the new party had as good a show for success as either of the two old parties. The campaign in the silver states has been mapped out, and General Weaver and General Field will fire the first gun at Denver on July 26. From there they will go to Chicago, St. Paul, and on the 30th they will hold forth at Astoria. August 1 a grand rally will be held at Grand Junction, when they will leave for the Pacific coast. They will make three in California, and make a trip through Oregon. They will proceed from there to the coast, and will arrive at San Francisco on August 15. From there they will go to St. Paul, returning to St. Louis on August 25. The campaign in the south will be mapped out, and shortly afterwards will be begun.

CLEVELAND WILL GO TO MAINE.

He Will Visit President Jones of the Boston Sorrento, Me., July 21.—Unless something of a political nature prevents, Grover Cleveland, Mrs. Cleveland and a small party of friends will leave Boston on August 4 for Mount Desert ferry, where they will be taken on board the steamer Sedona and come here, where they will be the guests of President Frank A. Johnson of the Boston Sorrento. They will ride in his private car, the Sorrento. The ex-president has accepted the invitation to visit the Sorrento, and will spend each day being mapped out. When Mr. Jones was a member of congress he formed the acquaintance of Mr. Cleveland, and when the latter was president they became friends.

Not Nominated for Congress.

CLAYTON, N. J., July 21.—Dr. Richard Bartholomew, editor of the Tribune, a German evening paper here, was nominated for congress on the first ballot by the republicans of the Tenth Missouri district.

Dr. Bartholomew, who has lived in Clayton, Mo., for many years, is a native of Germany and speaks the German language. He is an earnest, hardworking, painstaking man and nothing can be truthfully said against him.

John Rush—an entirely out of politics, but I confess that I have an interest in the welfare of the people, and because of that interest I would say that Mr. Crouse is not only the strongest man of the three gentlemen that appear to be most likely to be elected, but he is also the best man in the state. I have great respect for Mr. Ransom and I admire his ability, but in the present campaign, Mr. Crouse is the man who will lead the party.

Mr. Crouse is a man of high character and high ability, and he is also a man of high energy. He is a man who will lead the party, and he is a man who will lead the party.

Board of Trade Decides Not to Invest in a Freight Bureau.

The Board of Trade held an adjourned meeting at their rooms last night to consider the question of a yearly appropriation for the organization and maintenance of a freight bureau. In the absence of President Martin D. H. Wheeler was made chairman. The freight bureau matter had proved a fruitful source of contention at a previous meeting and everyone expected that the question would be referred to a committee. But when the meeting was called to order it looked as though the advocates of the bureau had left the enemy in possession of the field. N. J. Morse, John S. Hoadley, and others who were interested in the matter were conspicuously absent, while the negative contingent was out in force.

Mr. J. J. O'Connor opened the ball by moving that the board of directors be instructed not to make any such appropriation. He held that such action was neither advisable nor in the interest of the city. He enjoined the directors from making the appropriation.

After Breen seconded the motion and W. V. Morse rose to give a few reasons why the freight bureau would be a benefit to the business interests of the city, he maintained that the board of directors should not be asked to make such an appropriation.
